Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

Important Note: In this document any reference to "Spectra Training Australia", "Spectra Training", "Spectra", "CLB" or "Spectra / CLB" is a reference to CLB Training & Development Pty Ltd (A.C.N. 105 177 044) as trustee for the CLB Unit Trust (A.B.N. 82 443 695 367) trading as "Spectra Training" (TOID 21356).

1. Policy

Spectra Training Australia provides a complaints process that is transparent, fair and equitable for academic and non-academic matters, for current participants and/or those seeking to enrol.

2. Purpose

This procedure describes the process by which Spectra Training Australia clients and customers may have complaints addressed effectively, efficiently, professionally and confidentially.

3. Responsibility

The CEO is responsible for the control and issue of this procedure.

4. Definitions

A complaint means any act or omission that a customer or potential customer of Spectra Training Australia believes to be unfair or discriminatory and relates to any Spectra Training Australia activity. It can include complaints related to academic and non-academic matters such as:

- Content or structure of training programs;
- Nature of teaching or assessment;
- Assessment and marking matters;
- Selection or admission decisions;
- Delivery of a course or whole program;
- Alleged action by a staff member or another participant that, in the aggrieved participant's opinion, is prejudicial to his/her welfare as a participant;
- Administrative action or inaction, policy, procedure or decision;
- Access to facilities or resources; or

 Allegations of harassment, bullying, discrimination or breach of Spectra Training Australia rules, unethical practices or criminal behaviour; or

 A training program is cancelled by Spectra Training Australia due to a participant's failure to participate (refer to Withdrawal Policy and Procedure)

Informal complaint means a minor concern that could be effectively resolved without the need to make the matter a formal complaint. For example, alleged misinterpretation of policy by staff member, inappropriate penalty for late submission of assignment, dissatisfaction with training venue, concern with an invoice amount or similar.

Formal complaint means a complaint that cannot be resolved informally or is considered serious and therefore needs to be addressed formally. For example, misconduct by a staff member, possible crime or regulatory offence, discriminatory behaviour (staff or student), or similar.

Appeal means the action taken by a student (or their employer) who is dissatisfied with the outcome of an assessment decision

Advocate means person who accompanies and assists a student at any relevant meetings. The advocate may be a friend, family member, student representative. Staff, whether academic or administrative will not act as advocates.

Independent staff is a member of staff not involved with the complaint or complainant and is delegated by the CEO to investigate a complaint (if required).

Investigation means an inquiry into a complaint by an independent staff member who will:

- Commence a file and document all actions relating to the matter;
- Consider all material relating to the complaint;
- Act fairly and impartially, taking into account rules of natural justice and equity principles;
- Interview such parties as are relevant to the complaint;
- Inform him or herself as to any material facts by reference to authorities such as precedents; and
- Determine a resolution to the complaint by making recommendations including any remedies to be applied.
- Record all communications, findings and recommendations in the complaints register

Mediation is a way of resolving disputes between two or more parties with concrete outcomes with the help of a neutral mediator.

Third Parties A complainant may be assisted by a third party such as, a family member, counsellor or other professional support person. However; a third party is not two or more persons acting at the same time. An advocate may also be referred to as a third party. Costs associated with the third party are to be borne of the complainant.

Legal Representation The costs of legal representation must be borne by the party engaging such representation. Costs are not relevant to an outcome of any complaint or appeal.

Judicial Notice The complaint and appeal process/investigation does not have to strictly follow rules of evidence and can take notice of any information considered relevant. Where possible the principles relating to natural justice will be followed.

Flow Chart A flow chart is attached to this document that provides a visual explanation of the stages of the complaints process.

Complaint Form A Complaint Form has been developed for the information of students. It has been posted on the Spectra Training Australia website.

An email facility is also available via a feedback/complaints/enquiry/form on the Spectra website for the convenience of all stakeholders, including employees, participants and clients. Anonymity, which is expected to ensure candid feedback, is an option in this facility.

5. Guidelines

All prospective participants and employers/mentors will be provided with a Participant or Mentor Handbook upon application for training, this provides detail of the complaints policy and procedure.

Spectra Training Australia will encourage the parties to approach a complaint with an open view and will attempt to resolve issues through discussion and conciliation. Where a complaint cannot be resolved through discussion and conciliation, Spectra Training Australia acknowledges the need for an appropriate Executive Committee to mediate between the parties.

All disputes will be handled professionally and confidentially in order to achieve a satisfactory resolution.

All parties will have a clear understanding of the steps involved in the complaints procedure.

Each complainant will be provided with the opportunity to present his or her case at each stage of the process.

All complaints will be managed fairly and equitably and as efficiently as possible. The complaints and appeals process is available 'free of charge' to the participant.

All discussions relating to the complaint are to be recorded in the complaints register and the complainant provided with a written statement of the outcomes, including reasons for the decision.

Stakeholders that wish to appeal a decision made by Spectra Training Australia in relation to their complaint may do so in writing.

Spectra Training Australia will provide Trainer and Assessors and/or Participants with details of external authorities that they may wish to approach with respect to their complaint if required.

Spectra Training Australia will endeavour to resolve any complaint referred to it by the State Training Authority (STA) within ten (10) working days of its receipt of the complaint.

Any complaint will be handled fairly, recognising the rights of the person making the complaint and Spectra Training Australia or the person against whom the complaint is being made. All parties concerned will be treated with courtesy and at no time, will be discriminated or victimised. Appropriate confidentiality will be maintained throughout the process.

• Stage 4 - EXTERNAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

Spectra is a member of Resolution Institute Student Mediation Scheme.

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint at the end of the internal process, they may wish to have the matter dealt with through an external dispute resolution process facilitated by Resolution Institute.

The division of the expenses associated with the mediation eg. mediator's fee, room hire and possibly travel expenses are to be shared equally between Spectra and the complainant.

The following principles will be adhered to by both the parties.

4.1 Discussion / Negotiation

The parties agree that in the event of a dispute arising they shall first meet and attempt to resolve the issues of concern by means of discussion and personal negotiation. If this process does not resolve the issues, they shall refer the matter to mediation in accordance with clause 4.2.

4.2 Mediation - Resolution Institute Student Mediation Scheme

The parties must endeavour to settle any dispute in connection with the contract by mediation. Such mediation is to be conducted by a mediator who is independent of the parties and appointed by agreement of the parties or, failing agreement within seven (7) days of receiving any party's notice of dispute, by a person appointed by the Chair of Resolution Institute) or the Chair's designated representative (ACN 008 651 232).

4.3 Rules

The Resolution Institute Mediation Rules shall apply to the mediation.

A copy is available with the CEO.

4.4 Arbitration or Litigation

It is a condition precedent to the right of either party to commence arbitration or litigation other than for interlocutory relief that it has first offered to submit the dispute to mediation.
